MOTION TO DISMISS INDICTMENT OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, TO PRECLUDE PROSECUTION EVIDENCE RELATING TO AUDIOTAPED
FEDERAL DETENTION CENTER PHONE CALLS BY DEFENDANT

Defendant James Troiano (Troiano), by and through counsel Todd Eddins, moves the Court for an order precluding the government's use of evidence relating to phone calls made by Troiano at the Federal Detention Center.

This motion is based on the ground that Troiano's Fifth Amendment right to due process of law and a fair trial was violated when his "UNDER SEAL" request for a subpoena duces tecum relating to the phone calls was disregarded by the Federal Detention Center and the recordings of the calls were instead provided directly to the government. Troiano also asserts that his Sixth Amendment right to compulsory process and the assistance of counsel have been violated by the government's actions.

This motion is based on Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure Rules 12 and 47, and the Fifth and Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the Declaration of Counsel, the attached Memorandum of Law in Support of Motion, any evidence or representations elicited at an evidentiary hearing on the motion, and the arguments by counsel at the hearing on the motion.
